What Are American Airlines Carry-On Rules?

American Airlines allows each passenger to bring one carry-on bag and one personal item such as a purse, laptop bag, or small backpack. The american airlines carry-on rules state that the maximum dimensions for a carry-on bag are 22 x 14 x 9 inches, including handles and wheels. Personal items should fit under the seat in front of you, typically no larger than 18 x 14 x 8 inches.

For passengers unsure about size limitations, calling +1-(877)-245-9984 or +1-855-203-0772 can provide clarification about your specific bag dimensions. Remember, the american airlines carry-on rules are strictly enforced, especially on full flights, so verifying beforehand is always recommended.

Can I Bring a Backpack and a Carry-On on American Airlines?

Yes, passengers are allowed to bring both a backpack and a carry-on. The backpack counts as your personal item, while the larger bag counts as your official carry-on. To avoid any last-minute surprises, ensure your backpack fits under the seat in front of you.

For further clarification about this rule, you can reach American Airlines at +1-(877)-245-9984 or +1-855-203-0772. Many travelers often ask if adding extra bags requires additional fees. The answer depends on your ticket type and whether you exceed the weight or size limits outlined in the american airlines carry-on rules.

How Many 3 oz Bottles Can I Take on American Airlines?

Under TSA regulations, liquids, gels, and aerosols must be in containers of 3 ounces (100 milliliters) or less and placed in a quart-sized, clear, resealable plastic bag. Each passenger is allowed one bag of liquids, and the bag must be removed during security screening.

For questions regarding the number of liquids or other restrictions under american airlines carry-on rules, you can call +1-(877)-245-9984 or +1-855-203-0772. These experts can provide details on exceptions for medications, baby formula, or duty-free purchases.

What Is Not Allowed in a Carry-On Bag on American Airlines?
