Frontier Airlines No-Show Policy & Fees (2025 Guide)

Missing a flight can be stressful — but understanding Frontier Airlines’ no-show charges before you travel can save you money and confusion. The key question many travelers ask is:

👉 Does Frontier charge for not showing up?

Yes — Frontier Airlines can charge you or cancel your itinerary if you fail to show up for your flight without notifying the airline. It’s part of Frontier’s no-show policy, and knowing your options can help protect your ticket value.

For immediate support with missed flights, rebooking, or no-show questions, call ✨ +1-877-622-0707 || or || +1-877-622-0707 with your booking number ready.

✨ What “Not Showing Up” Means

Frontier considers you a no-show when:

- You don’t check in by the required time
- You don’t board your flight
- You don’t notify Frontier ahead of the departure

In these situations, Frontier may not only charge you — your remaining itinerary segments may be canceled unless you promptly contact the airline at ✨ +1-877-622-0707 || or || +1-877-622-0707.

✨ Does Frontier Charge a Fee for Not Showing Up?

Yes — Frontier Airlines may charge for not showing up, but the exact outcome depends on:

- Your fare type (Basic, Standard, Bundled fares)
- How far in advance you call Frontier
- Whether you notified the airline before departure

Frontier no longer charges traditional “change fees” for most flights, but not showing up without notice may lead to loss of the ticket or other costs. For clarity on your ticket rules, call ✨ +1-877-622-0707 || or || +1-877-622-0707.

✨ What Happens When You Don’t Show Up

If you miss your flight and don’t notify Frontier, everything that follows may occur:

- ✓ Your flight is marked as no-show
- ✓ Any connecting flights may be canceled

- ✓ Your ticket value may be forfeited
- ✓ Rebooking may only be possible by paying a new fare or difference

Frontier's system automatically updates status if the passenger fails to board — so calling ✨ +1-877-622-0707 || or || +1-877-622-0707 before or immediately after missing the flight can help reduce penalties.

✨ Are There Situations Where You Don't Pay for No-Show?

Frontier Airlines may waive or reduce penalties for not showing up if:

- The airline caused a delay or cancellation
- You contacted Frontier before departure
- You purchased a flexible fare or bundle
- Travel insurance covers the scenario

These exceptions vary by ticket type and timing. Always call ✨ +1-877-622-0707 || or || +1-877-622-0707 to confirm your options and avoid unexpected losses.
