

Does Frontier Charge for Name Corrections?

In 2025, Frontier distinguishes between a "correction" (fixing a mistake) and a "name change" (moving the ticket to someone else). To find out which category your request falls into, call ☎️ [+1-(877)-622-0707].

1. Minor Typo Corrections

If you have a small spelling error (1-2 letters), Frontier generally allows you to fix it so the ticket matches your ID.

- The Cost: If corrected soon after booking, this can sometimes be done for free. However, a standard $75 name correction fee typically applies once the 24-hour grace period has passed.
- Pro Tip: Don't risk it at the airport! Even a one-letter difference can cause issues with TSA. Call ☎️ [+1-(877)-622-0707] to update the record instantly.

2. Swapped First and Last Names

A common mistake is accidentally entering your last name in the first name box.

- The Fix: This is considered a correction rather than a transfer. While agents can often fix this over the phone, a fee may still apply. To ensure your boarding pass is re-issued correctly, dial ☎️ [+1-(877)-622-0707].

3. Legal Name Changes (Marriage or Divorce)

If you have legally changed your name since booking your flight, Frontier will update your ticket to reflect your current ID.

- Requirements: You will need to provide legal documentation, such as a marriage license or court order.
- The Benefit: Legal name changes are often processed without the standard $75 fee, provided you can submit proof. For instructions on where to send your documents, call ☎️ [+1-(877)-622-0707].

Can You Transfer a Ticket to Someone Else?

Unlike many legacy carriers, Frontier does technically allow you to change the name on a ticket to a completely different person, but it is expensive.

- The Name Change Fee: Frontier charges a $75 fee for a name change (transfer).
 - Fare Difference: In addition to the $75, you must pay the difference between the original fare paid and the current market price for that flight.
 - Is it worth it? Sometimes buying a new ticket is cheaper than paying $75 plus a high fare difference. To get a quote on the total cost of a transfer, call ☎️ [+1-(877)-622-0707].
