What Is a No-Show on Frontier Airlines?

A no-show occurs when a passenger doesn't board the flight they purchased and fails to notify Frontier before departure. In most cases, Frontier considers you a no-show if:

- You don't check in before the flight departs
- You don't cancel or rebook before the departure time

Once Frontier marks a reservation as a no-show, the airline may:

- ✓ Cancel the remaining portion of your itinerary
- ✓ Forfeit the value of the ticket (depending on fare rules)
- ✓ Require fees to reinstate or rebook

To prevent serious consequences, contact Frontier as soon as possible — especially before the flight leaves — by calling 📞 +1-877-622-0707.

How Frontier's No-Show Policy Affects Your Ticket

Frontier's no-show policy varies by fare type and timing:

✈️ Basic Fares

Basic tickets are the most restrictive: no changes or refunds are allowed after departure, and no-show rules are strictly enforced. If you miss a Basic fare flight without prior notice, the ticket is usually forfeited.

✈️ Main Cabin and Bundled Fares

If you're flying with a Main Cabin ticket or purchased a bundle like WORKS or PERKS, you may have more flexibility — including rebooking options — but you still risk losing value if the no-show isn't handled correctly.

For clarity on how your specific fare is treated under Frontier's policy, call 📞 +1-877-622-0707 before your flight departs.

What Happens if You Are Marked as a No-Show?

If Frontier labels your reservation as a no-show:

- Your ticket may be automatically canceled
- The value of the ticket may be forfeited
- You may need to pay rebooking fees or fare differences
- Any remaining flights tied to the same booking may also be canceled

If this happens, it's critical to call ☎ +1-877-622-0707 immediately. Agents may still offer options, such as issuing travel credits or assisting with next-available flights — depending on your fare conditions and timing.

Same-Day Changes and No-Show Prevention

Frontier sometimes offers same-day changes if seat availability allows it. If you think you'll miss your flight but want to travel later that same day:
