1. What Is a No-Show?

A no-show occurs when a passenger does not board their scheduled flight and fails to notify Frontier Airlines in advance. No-shows can happen due to:

- Forgetting to check in online or at the airport
- Arriving late at the boarding gate
- Not canceling or rescheduling before the flight departs

Passengers who fail to show up may face ticket forfeiture, cancellation of remaining flights, and additional costs if rebooking.

2. Does Frontier Charge for No-Shows?

Frontier Airlines generally does not impose a separate no-show fee, but there are indirect costs:

- Fare Forfeiture: Your ticket may be lost entirely if you fail to show up.
- Rebooking Fees: If you rebook, you may pay fare differences or service fees.
- Bundled Fares: Some fare types may allow travel credit if the airline is notified promptly.
