1. What Constitutes a Missed Flight on Frontier

A missed flight occurs when a passenger fails to board the plane at the scheduled departure time. Frontier may consider a passenger a no-show if they:

- Do not check in online, via the mobile app, or at the airport
- Arrive at the boarding gate after it closes
- Fail to cancel or reschedule before departure

Consequences of missing a flight include:

- Forfeiture of the ticket value
- Cancellation of return or connecting flights
- Additional fees if rebooking

2. Does Frontier Charge for Missing a Flight?

Frontier generally does not charge a separate no-show fee. Instead, the main cost comes from losing your ticket value or paying fare differences.

- Basic Fare: Typically non-refundable; missing the flight may result in full loss.
- Classic or Bundled Fares: Sometimes eligible for travel credit, depending on timing.
- Refundable Tickets: May allow partial or full refunds.
